

OFF THE BEATEN PATH IN NORTHEAST FLORIDA!

1

Amelia Island Museum of History
233 South Third Street • Fernandina Beach, FL
904-261-7378 • www.ameliamuseum.org
View artifacts showcasing 4,000 years of island history with exhibits on Timucuan Indians, Spanish missions, the Civil War, Florida railroads, and the turpentine industry.

2

Kingsley Plantation National Historic Site
11676 Palmetto Avenue • Jacksonville, FL
904-251-3537 • www.nps.gov/timu/
See a restored plantation house, kitchen house, barn, and ruins of 25 slave cabins operated by Zephaniah Kingsley as a cotton plantation between 1814 and 1837.

3

Mandarin Museum
11964 Mandarin Road • Jacksonville, FL
904-268-0784 • www.mandarinmuseum.net
Explore a typical 1800s Mandarin homestead—farmhouse, barn, sawmill, general store, and post office and learn about the Maple Leaf, a Union Ship sunk by a Confederate mine in 1864.

5

Fort Mose Historical State Park
Two miles north of St. Augustine on US 1 North and Saratoga Blvd. (Fort Mose Trail), follow signs east to Fort Mose Museum and Interpretive Center • 904-823-2232 www.floridastateparks.org/fortmose
Visit the site of the first free Black settlement in North America and the fort, which helped to defend Spanish St. Augustine.

7

Mount Royal Indian Mound
Mount Royal Airpark off C.R. 309, Indian Mound Road and William Bartram Drive • Welaka, FL
386-467-9709 • www.flheritage.com/archaeology/projects/mountroyal
View a large Indian burial mound with updated kiosk and signage.

4

Guana-Tolomato-Matanzas National Estuarine Research Reserve (GTM Reserve)
505 Guana River Road • Ponte Vedra Beach, FL
904-823-4500 • www.gtmnerr.org
Hike past a Native American shell mound and a Minorcan coquina well as you explore the 55,000-acre Atlantic coastal habitat.

6

Mala Compra Plantation Archaeological Site
West side of intersection of North Oceanshore Blvd (A1A) and Mala Compra Drive • Palm Coast, FL • 386-313-4020
Learn how archaeology is done at the site of General Joseph Hernandez's early 19th-century (1816-1836) plantation, where you can see remains of coquina structures along with interpretive displays.

8

Flagler Beach Historical Museum
207 S. Central Avenue • Flagler Beach, FL
386-517-2025 • www.flaglerbeachmuseum.com
Learn the history of Flagler Beach and early Florida. View artifacts from Mala Compra Plantation, Native American sites, and fossil beds on the Intracoastal.

9

Bulow Plantation Ruins Historic Park
Intersection of County Road 2001 (Old Kings Road) and Bulow Plantation Road • Palm Coast, FL
386-517-2084 • www.floridastateparks.org/bulowplantation
Explore the ruins of a 19th-century (1821-1836) plantation including a coquina sugar mill, the foundations of the manor house, slave cabins, wells and a spring house.

10

Tomoka State Park - Nocoroco
2099 North Beach Street • Ormond Beach, FL
386-676-4050 • www.floridastateparks.org/tomoka
Hike on a trail through the Nocoroco Timucuan Village, once a thriving Native American habitation site on the banks of the Tomoka River.

11

Dunlawton Plantation Sugar Mill Ruins Botanical Gardens aka Bongoland
950 Old Sugar Mill Road • Port Orange, FL
386-767-1735 • www.dunlawtonsugarmillgardens.org
Investigate the coquina and brick ruins of an 1830s sugar mill complex and assortment of sugar mill processing equipment, located within a lovely botanical garden with dinosaur statuary.

12

New Smyrna Museum of History – Turnbull Plantation – Old Fort Park
120 Sams Avenue • New Smyrna Beach, FL
386-478-0052 • www.nsbhistory.org
Learn about the history of New Smyrna Beach with exhibits on Native American sites and a gallery devoted to Turnbull's Smyrna Settlement, home to 1,200 indentured Minorcan, Greek, Italian and Corsican settlers between 1768 and 1777.

13

Cruger-DePeyster Sugar Mill Ruins
600 Old Mission Road • New Smyrna Beach, FL
www.volusia.org/services/community-services/parks-recreation-and-culture/parks-and-trails/park-facilities-and-locations/historical-parks/sugar-mill-ruins.stml
View beautiful coquina arches and the remains of an 1830s sugar mill.

15

Hontoon Island State Park
2309 River Ridge Road • Deland, FL • 386-736-5309
www.floridastateparks.org/hontoonisland
Delve into Native American life through the museum's archaeological exhibits and hike out to the shell mound.

16

Blue Spring State Park – Thursby Mound
2100 West French Avenue • Orange City, FL
386-775-3663 • www.floridastateparks.org/bluespring
Walk through an 1872 pioneer house sitting atop an ancient Indian shell mound.

ST. AUGUSTINE
See details on back

Historic Fort

Historic Lighthouse

Explore Archaeology

Explore Archaeology

OFF THE BEATEN PATH IN ST. AUGUSTINE!

 Historic Cemetery

 Historic Fort

 Historic Lighthouse

1 Fountain of Youth Archaeology Park
11 Magnolia Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3168 • www.fountainofyouthflorida.com
Learn about the founding of St. Augustine by Spanish Conquistadors and the Timucuan Indians who first welcomed them.

2 Mission of Nombre de Dios and Shrine of Our Lady of Le Leche
27 Ocean Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2809 • www.missionandshrine.org
View the 208-foot cross commemorating Pedro de Menendez de Aviles's landing in 1565, the first parish Mass, the first Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the first Spanish Mission in America. See artifacts—including Menedez's casket—on display in the Mission's museum.

3 Visitor Information Center
Intersection of Cordova and Orange Streets
St. Augustine, FL • 904-825-6830
www.historicstaugustine.com/csq/info.html
Explore the city's archaeology through an exhibit by the City of St. Augustine Archaeology Program.

4 St. Photios Greek Orthodox National Shrine
41 St. George Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-8205 • www.stphotios.com
Visit the shrine and exhibit dedicated to the Greek colonists who fled to St. Augustine after the failure of the 1768 New Smyrna settlement.

5 Ximenez-Fatio House
20 Aviles Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3575 • www.ximenezfatiohouse.org
www.flaglerlibrary.org/history/MalaCompra/project.htm
Visit the most excavated property in St. Augustine and see the Caravaca Cross.

6 St. Augustine Art Association
22 Marine Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2310 • www.staaa.org
See artifacts from – and art inspired by – excavations at the Association of Sir Francis Drake's 16th century raid of the town.

7 Father Miguel O'Reilly House Museum
32 Aviles Street • St. Augustine, FL
www.oreillyhouse.org
See a rare two-story First Spanish Period structure and learn about the Catholic Church in old St. Augustine.

8 The Oldest House
14 St. Francis Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2872 • www.staugustinehistoricalsociety.org
Explore life during the early 1700s at the Gonzalez-Alvarez House, the oldest remaining Spanish Colonial home in Florida. While there, visit an ornamental garden and witness St. Augustine's history in two museums and a changing exhibition gallery.

9 St. Augustine Lighthouse and Maritime Museum
81 Lighthouse Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-0745 • www.staugustinelighthouse.com
After climbing to the top of the lighthouse built in 1874, take a look at artifacts from the British Industry shipwreck at the museum in the keepers house, ongoing conservation projects, and the home of the Lighthouse Archaeology Maritime Program.

10 Anastasia State Park – Coquina Quarry Site
1340-A A1A South • St. Augustine, FL
904-461-2033 • www.floridastateparks.org/anastasia
Explore a Spanish stone quarry where coquina shell rock was mined by the colonial Spanish to create the Castillo de San Marcos, the oldest masonry fort in North America.

